

Mr. Kennedy moved to adjourn, and the question was put, and determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the bill, entitled, an act to prevent unnecessary accumulation of costs on all actions or suits at law in the county courts of this State, was read a third time; and after some discussion, the question was put, "Shall the bill as amended pass?"

The yeas and nays, being asked for, were taken, and appeared as follows:

Affirmative.

Messrs. Marriott, President
Heath
Herbert

Rees
Sewell
Smith—6.

Negative,

Messrs. Dennis
Forrest
Harrison

Kennedy
Lloyd —5.

Determined in the affirmative.

So the bill was passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

The Senate then adjourned until to morrow morning nine o'clock.

SATURDAY, February 27th, 1830.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday.

The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill entitled an act, to abolish the Levy Court and provide for the election, by the people, of commissioners for Talbot county, and prescribing their powers and duties, was read the first, and by special order, a second and third time, passed with the amendments heretofore adopted by the Senate, and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Heath, from the committee, made a favorable report upon the bill, entitled, an act relating to the Baltimore Second Dispensary, with the following amendment, viz:

Amendment proposed.

Add to the end of the 1st section, the following words, "not inconsistent with the laws of this State or of the United States, and provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to enable the incorporators to carry on any
